

Consulate General of India
Guangzhou

16 November, 2017

Consulate General of India, Guangzhou is hosting a stage drama "Yugpurush"

Government of India is celebrating the India@70 to commemorate 70th year of Independence on 15th August 2017 onwards. As part of the celebrations Consulate General of India in Guangzhou is hosting a stage drama "Yugpurush- The Play" in Guangzhou on 22 November 2017 at Grand View Theatre, 7F, Grand View Mall, No.228, Tianhe Road, Tianhe district Guangzhou.

"Yugpurush - The Play" is an international acclaimed & heart-touching play which depicts the special relationship that developed between Guru Shrimad Rajchandraji and Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi (Mahatma Gandhi). "Yugpurush -The Play" highlights the values of love, peace, selflessness, respect for diversity, fostering trust and building lasting harmony amongst the communities. The Play brings out a powerful experience of looking within oneself and upholding value of truth for self-transformation. The Play aims to spread Shrimad Rajchandraji's values of non-violence and truth that shaped Mahatma Gandhi's strong beliefs on non-violence.

Yugpurush is a 2 hour live play and performed all over the world and according to latest figure of crossing 950 Shows worldwide including USA, UK, Africa, Middle East. Stage drama has been great success captivating audiences' imagination from diverse backgrounds, ages and communities whenever the play has been staged.